In 2021, Brandon Weis hiked over 8,000 miles on the Appalachian Trail, Pacific Crest Trail, and Continental Divide Trail, completing the Calendar Year Triple Crown – something only 10 other people had ever done. Then he added a bonus 800 miles on top of that and hiked the Arizona Trail from Utah to Mexico.

Brandon will share some of his adventures, highlighting the physical and mental toll a year of hiking takes, and why someone would want to do something crazy like that. His book, This is Gonna Hurt, will be available for sale and signing.
